{1} Life and Immortality

Who has saved us, and called us with a HOLY calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the world began. But is NOW MADE MANIFEST by the appearing of our savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death, and has brought LIFE and IMMORTALITY to light through the gospel. 2 Timothy 2:9-10

Ah, life and immortality, sounds like the title for a major motion picture, and for others, it is too good to be true. But the reality is that such dimension is already at work in us.

However, a countless number would deem it unlikely, seeing that for many, their only hope for living is in the hereafter. Or, if it isn't the gratifying notion that immortality is exclusive to the other side of death, it is the wayward thinking of many which believe that it is rather difficult to abound {John 10:10} in this life now, while eagerly awaiting to board flight 888 for takeoff.

On either extreme of the pendulum, we are missing out on the added value {2 Peter 1:5-11} of what the gospel really is, HERE and NOW.

For one thing, the religious system has done far more than just blinded a few from entering into the present truth, or what the Father is NOW saying with what he has already said. But in all actuality, it has robbed many of the glorious dimensions of sonship, perfection, full stature, and the manifested life of the Father NOW, on this side of sonship. It has promised a better hope in the ultra nebula, beyond quasars and stars, while fostering defeat in this present life. It has been the culprit in the pulpit, accelerating the physical aging process in many, hastening death before their time.

We must discern what we are eating and taking into our inner dimension, and as leaders, what we are feeding others in our assemblies. For if we bank on the frivolous notions of church, while being deprived of our deeper walk from the hidden dimension, we will only be satisfied with what the carnal mind has suggested for us which is "just enough, not too much, or easy now!"

We'll only grow {or be stunted} according to the dictates of a spurious system, and in some instances, "that's all we can expect in this life!"

But let me tell you, when truth comes to make you free, it may first make you miserable. Yes, truth, which is Christ personified, and truth as the Spirit of TRUTH will always find itself diametrically opposed by that which causes one to veer off the righteous path. But it is not alone truth that makes you free, but the truth that you know and become {John 1:12} which makes you free. For in our experience over the years, we proclaimed the present truth to thousands, and out of that cluster of hearers, some still did not believe.

Still, some waited to believe only if they were to amazz a fortune, or to have a serious handle on physical or temporal stuff...But how many know that plenty is not always the promise. For Abram went to the promise, but Lot went for plenty. It is good when God himself is plentious in his generosity for our tailor-made expression in our life. But remember, God is not a Sugar Daddy, and we are not Gimme, Gimme kids in the kingdom. We are maturing into the fullness of sonship on earth, manifested sonship which reveals the Father in all that he IS and all that he DOES...A people who know their God and is strong, doing exploits...Daniel 11

Now, let us continue with our message today, LIFE and IMMORTALITY, and provide you withe 10 important principles for our development, maturity, and continuance in well doing.

1 - In the message of life and immortality there is Zoe. Whether it is everlasting, eternal, or endless life, it is the Life of the Father, the realm of which HE IS. It is where God is ALL God and desires to manifest eternity into our time. Here he knows himself within himself, for he knows only God, and the life that springs forth from within him to others.

This is not to suggest that we go on some rigid self-styled campaign to assure that we are preaching and teaching life, for we must trust the Lord with what we perceive he is giving us to speak as the Spirit quickens and makes alive.

However, when the dominant theme of our dietary intake is biological life, or the mere esteem of ordinary human life {at the exclusion of HIS radiant life - check with Adam and Eve and you'll know why they were banished from the garden}, then our perception before presentation may perhaps abound from an outer court mentality {the sun light as oppose to the Shekinah of the most holy place}.

2 - In the message of life and immortality there is as unending existence and incorruptibility, undecaying in essence and continuance. It is the same used meaning in Romans 2:7 where Paul alludes to our patient continuance in well doing seeking glory, honor, immortality, and eternal life. Here, part of our mission and lot in life is to become infused with kingdom principles that will not merely add years to our life, but life to our years.

For we are not merely aging, but maturing, into the very fullness of Christ. As he is, so are we. But are we eating what and who HE IS? Is Christ the historical figure of our old upbringing, or is HE the quickening Spirit of our now generation {genes, the genesis of His DNA, Divine Nature Activated}? 1 Corinthians 15:45

3 - In the message of life and immortality there is defined another compound word meaning deathlessness, no death...For this corruptible {perishable} must put on incorruption {same as immortality}, and this mortal {the limitations of the flesh} must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory {triumph}. {Read also 2 Corinthians 5:1-8, mortality is swallowed up by LIFE}

In the message of immortality, we are given spiritual impartation of HIS life, HIS undecaying and non-perishable life, His deathlessness in the sense of there being no gruesome or grueling end to HIS endless overflowing life.

For according to Psalms 118:17, I shall not die, but live and declare the works of the Lord. I shall not weep at the willow tree but live...I shall not sit here and die but live... I shall not let present frustrations dampen my dreams for a rewarding future, but live...I shall LIVE and declare the works of the Lord...

One becomes a new pioneering new dimension and demonstration for destiny. Our life is no longer dictated by medical reports of a decaying end. We see the usefulness of the trying times, even the tragedy to triumph. But death will no longer define nor decline, deny nor defy the purpose for which you and me were purposed, and the destiny, which we have been destined for. In this developmental stage, we move from death to life through a change in mentality, a change of nature, facilitating our minds with HIS endless LIFE...

Our eyes become full of life, and so does our bodies. For we now believe the report of the Lord. We strongly sense the mandate of our mission, and actively pursue and become what we were born to be. We add value to our life by becoming transformed through the renewing of our minds. We refuse to live life on the lower level of the sixth day {the beast and creeping thing, versus man walking in the upright image of God}...Genesis 1

4 - In the gospel of life and immortality, we no longer focus on sin consciousness, but Christ consciousness, elevating our minds and Spirit to Christ, living life in the ascendancy. We no longer generate an industry of guilt and shame, but through the convicting power of HIS Holy Spirit, even the Spirit of the Lord changes us into HIS same image from glory to glory. 2 Corinthians 3:18...

The message then, becomes the image of God through Christ, Christ in you, not Christ far away from you. For the image of God is the prelude and precursor to dominion. True, the image of God really begins the dominion mandate of Genesis 1:26, 28, but it takes us from sitting on the premises to walking out the promise. It moves us past sermonettes to Christianettes whose dietary appeal is raisinettes! Through the image of God, the whole earth {our personal cosmos} is full of HIS glory. Isaiah 6:3

5 - In the gospel of life and immortality we learn not to faint {Isaiah 40:31}. We become renewed to the inward life daily, living in the unseen. The hidden life becomes the real life, which erupts from within us, spilling over into the daily streams of our everyday living. Here, life is no longer meager, nor merely existing, as the temporal makes way for the eternal. 2 Corinthians 4:16-18.

The messages in the corporate anointing then, become compounded into a deeper influence toward manifesting HIS life in all life situations. The kingdom then becomes a lifestyle, a life-giving nature.

6 - The message of life and immortality resists the stronghold of fear. It places and paces us into a new frequency toward fulfilling our purpose and destiny. It releases a bold new confidence in seizing opportunities, as perfect LOVE {1 Corinthians 13} casts out fear {1 John 4:18}. Fear is expelled through the reality of "I can do all things through Christ, which empowers me." No longer do we have faith in fear, as the message of life and immortality fortifies us to move beyond all mental parameters, borders, and boundaries. We suddenly break free from these limitations through deathlessness, his surpassing glory, which never fades.

7 - In the message of life and immortality there is the NOW and PROCEEDING word of the Lord {Matthew 4:4}. It is not another bible story for the catering to our emotions, but the very declared word out of HIS mouth for us right now. In this proceeding word, our everyday life is to accommodate and to facilitate the now word, in personal health and wealth, in mind, motive, and mentality.

Such rich dimension of the spoken word positions us to make radical changes if need be, for the birthing of that proceeding word into the very manifestation of our personal life. We may even move from mere bible trivia to spiritual travail.

For now, our immediate life is being characterized with the proceeding word for that very moment of time. We are getting ready for manifestation. {Romans 8:19-27 - 1 Kings 5:1-14...We are singing the Now and Proceeding word of the Lord. We are praising God through the Now and Proceeding word of the Lord. We are preparing to move into a new home, or to drive a new car, or perhaps to walk again, through the Proceeding and Now word of the Lord. Our life takes on a new level of preparedness, for to make ready the appearing of our Lord in our personal life.

The promise for a new mate, childbearing, or a new job, vastly approaches the desired manifestation. We may find ourselves doing things which does not make common sense, but spiritual sense. We are ready to move with the cloud, or remain if the cloud remains. But one thing is for certain, the Lord has undeniably spoken to us. It is life changing, and life giving. It will surely come to pass. It has already begun to change our life forever.

8 - In the message of life and immortality, God talks to GOD. According to Genesis 1:26, God said, Let us make man in our image and likeness...Here, man is brought into being by the creativity of God, spirit to spirit. Here, we fellowship with the appointed saints speaking God to God by empowering the image of God to speak only who HE is, what HE does, and what HE is now saying.

We are speaking creative things into manifestation when we only talk to God in one another. We empower a rhythm of creative miracles, signs, and wonders through talking to God in one another, for that is to be the true habitat for all present truth saints. We are empowered to walk in bold new dimensions of grace and glory, the glory of the only begotten son, the unlimited glory of the Lord, the Lord of GLORY!

The supernatural dimension is to become more real than the natural. Therein do we live, move, and have our being. We feed the seed & nurture the nature. So the next time you gather together in the corporate man, talk to God one IN another.

Elders, change the regular meeting schedule of your assembly and while each is standing beside one another, talk to God, the potential of the Potentate.

Let the rivers flow to overflowing. In time, watch a seasoned manifestation and notable miracle take place, as God talks to his own self in the midst of us, one through another. It may begin with who he is, what he does, and what he says.

Speak HIM, talk HIM, and do what HE is doing in the midst of you. In this dimension, the entire corporate anointing is released into a new season of expectancy, beyond the message of the week, into becoming the message, the very life of God manifested in that local body.

9 - In the message of life and immortality, we move from divine healing {30 fold}, divine health {60 fold}, into divine life {100 fold}. In this realm, someone catches a hold of something so profound in the Spirit that the body takes on the very substance and tangibility of the intangible. Mindsets are restored to a new order that healing is the children's bread, and the cry of the Spirit echoes beyond the initial need for bodily healing. Here, the whole man dares to believe for all that he IS and all that he DOES.

10 - In the message of life and immortality, there is new vision for fulfilling the eternal purpose of our being on earth. We develop an ongoing that does not cease in adversity or trial. We become new things in the spirit and the natural, as our life is no longer limited to what we naturally see, hear, or feel

As we pursue HIM, and embrace HIM in the fullness, we let go of the old patterns of O well, to IT IS WELL! Our life becomes the light and life of what we now perceive in the hidden dimension. But in truth, Christ is no longer hidden, but made alive in us.

The mystery Christ is becomes the revealed Christ, as we become empowered to make our calling and election sure. So-called stumbling blocks now become stepping-stones. Obstacles now become opportunities. Problems now become solutions through the wisdom of the ages, the Ancient paths, the Ancient of Days {Micah 5:2}.

A time warp takes place, as we discover the undiscovered country {Star Trek fans}, the place that has always been, but unimaginable and unattainable to fickle thinking. It is our future in the now. A place that we have moved into, and more frustrating if we were to return to the old wineskin.

Now, we vanquish beyond and the New Year becomes a new you. Like Abraham, we look for a city, which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. From the Garden of Eden to the New Jerusalem {the saints in perfection and fullness, the glory of the Lord filling HIS temple}, we move from visitation to habitation. But between those points is manifestation.

May the Lord make manifest in us the fullness of HIMSELF in this life. May we become apprehended by that which we apprehend, as Christ who is our life now appears in us. O God, manifest yourself in the midst of your people. Let the light of your glorious gospel of life and immortality shine forth in us to the overflow, bringing change into our sphere of influence as well.

May we become so infused with a vision and revelation of you, who is altogether lovely. May the proceeding word of the Lord become the meat that the carnal man no not of. May we ride upon the high places of the earth and eat of the heritage of Jacob.

May the whole earth come into the image of God, and may church as we know it change forever. As new creations, old mentalities are passed away and becoming new are all things. We delight in you being glorified in us.

And in this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over the nations. He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth; for the Lord has spoken it. Isaiah 25:6-8

Final thought...

A – You must spiritual eat and feast upon more things that is conducive to your purpose, progression, and divine design. If you know not of these things then turn to Ephesians 1:17-18.

B – A caterpillar eats about 10 times its weight prior to its transformation. The closer you get to your destiny, the more intense the hunger and passion for transformation takes place. Jacob became Israel through transformation. Isaiah 43:1 – Jacob was created but Israel was formed

C – Feed the Seed and to nurture HIS nature, for by divine enlightenment you are becoming what you already are. I am that I AM! – or, I AM that I AM

{2} MORTALITY IS SWALLOWED UP IN LIFE

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle [tent] is dissolved [destroyed, demolished, dismantled, or taken down] , we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked [or disembodied]. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened [sigh, have a painful longing]: not for that we should be unclothed, but clothed upon [or not that I want to be stripped...Moffat's: not because we want to just get rid of these "clothes," but because we want to know the full cover of the permanent house that will be ours...Phillip's: wishing to put our heavenly body over it...TCNT:

As a people flowing out of the Utterances of God, the principles mentioned in the above passages do not find themselves fulfilled exclusively after physical death, but is rather seen and experienced as a foretaste of that which is to come as well. It is the present truth understanding of this glorious dimension at work in us, now, brought into manifestation and to light and life by the Spirit of the Lord. As confirmed by the holy scriptures, there is more to life than just existing. There is much more to life than a 9-5pm job, household chores, night school, a weekend or second job, and having babies. There is the distinct realization that life in the purest sense is "Zoe," God's life, all that he is within himself [in us], or simply, God just being HIMSELF in us... Zoe life is the divine nature of God the Father. It is the very substance [if you will] of what he is. And since he is life, then life begets life, Spirit begets spirit, and the substance of his endless life is made manifest through Christ and his corporate body [Christ the Head and Christ the Body].

For centuries immortality has been desired by men and women world over. Man has tried with every effort and intention on either looking and remaining young, returning to their [fountain of] youth, slowing down secondary aging, the belief in Cryonics [preserving your body in some kind of deep freeze or suspension for the future], or adherence to cultic beliefs in becoming their own God.

Mankind has paid top dollar to look good, even while feeling very bad inside. From lipo-suction, plastic surgery, physical reconstruction {which may all be fine and found in their place and setting}, to a vast array of cosmetics and research for genetic alteration, man is at his best making every stride to attaining perfection in the human flesh.

Now let's examine a little "Mortal and Immortality"

Mortality: The same word for Mortal in the New Testament... It comes from the Greek word "thnetos" meaning "liable to die." It comes from another Greek word meaning "to die"

Immortality: Two important Greek words define immortality. One is found in Romans 2:7 and 2 Timothy 1:10. The word here is "aphtharsis" meaning "incorruptibility, unending existence. This comes from another word meaning "undecaying [in essence or continuance], not corruptible.

Now, the other word for immortality is found in 1 Corinthians 15:53-54; and 1 Timothy 6:16 which is the Greek word "athanasia" meaning "deathlessness." Together, these two words define immortality, especially through context and usage of these two terms. Now, let's look at them in scripture setting...

To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life: Romans 2:7

For this corruptible must put on incorruption [imperishable form, which can never decay], and this mortal must put on immortality [and this part capable of dying must put on the body that can never die, deathless form]. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory [or, death has been triumphantly destroyed]. 1 Corinthians 15:53-54 [read also vss. 51-57]

Who only hath immortality [the only source of...Phi] 1 Timothy 6:16

But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, [rendered death ineffectual, has put a stop to the power of death, has broken the power of death, has annulled death, destroyed death, made an end of Death], and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: 2 Timothy 1:10

Death to a Death Mentality

Beloved, grueling death, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26 is in one major sense an enemy. In Revelation 1:18 our Ascended Lord has the keys of hell and death, which also speaks of Jesus as the pattern, as He is, so are we in this world. 1 John 4:17

Death is not God's best when you weigh the principles of the word of God to HIS plan and purpose for a rewarding and fulfilling life. In fact, it is not even to be the focus of believers.

According to Hebrews 9:27 "It is appointed unto men once to die..." But beloved, Jesus met or made that appointment so that we may live His LIFE abundantly. He has abolished death, the subtle or overt consciousness thereof, even a death mentality which tends to accentuate and perpetuate death in us so that we may live HIS life right here on earth...

However, one must avail themselves to this divine consciousness instilled in us at the re-birth, and not accept relentless death to work its work or take its toll on us in a manner which questions whether we are fulfilling our destiny with purpose, or moving in obedience in HIS word, or allowing certain habit forming to become a negative habitation within our bodies and minds. And I reference this again, habits {good or not so good}, tends to form habitations.

And right now we need to declare and decree {with our heart and mouth, and the confession of HIS faith from the 3rd Day and Finished Work of the Cross that we will not dwell in arenas of thinking which accelerates death in one another. We will not espouse or esteem such mentality, and yet sadly, many assemblies are not aware of things we hold dear to in our memories and imaginations which speeds up this proces of elimination...and the things we preach and teach which triggers and sets forth into increasing motion such gripping death-like state of being...

In the old covenant, the patriarch's pattern of the departure from life was very simple, "the just lived by faith and they died by faith!" In other words, death to the old testament saints in particular was not confined or defined to a bad diet, but by obedience to God. When their allotted portion in life was summed up, it was simply time to go, transition into the unlimited glory of the Lord. Like Jacob [Israel] concerning his 12 sons, he just "gave up the ghost."

No hypertension, cancer, tumors, or diabetes, especially in what I have witnessed over the years as a kid growing up in my neighborhood in Baltimore, Maryland, and no inner patterns within us to attract such devices and demise. Just a simple act of faith to depart from this life is how the patriarchs lived. When their purpose was fulfilled, they moved on to {smile} higher ground...

Yet we are so far from such pattern today, with how we eat, lack of rest, lack of exercise, disobedience to divine and governing spiritual laws, and all of the core values and beliefs which once brought many into earlier success in these things. For it is in part what the core values and beliefs are which reveals the kind of life we tend to live on earth. If we refuse to put core kingdom values into practioning usage then we stand for little or nothing, producing a faulty foundation as we let certain force factors right in the front door to wreak havoc and take a devastating toll on our very lives...

Now beloved death today has become an industry...

The local news may many times bring on its first five minute edition with violent crimes and other fatalities. The world news may even announce conditions in our economy, politics, scandals, and the threat of war. Though the media is liberal, many believers preoccupy themselves with death on a number of levels and on a regular basis. Like a frequency or signal, we tend to pick up such signaling and adjust our thinking to what we hear and see in the external dimension, when in truth our inward man is to be renewed day by day {2 Corinthians 4:16-18}, renewed to HIS life, and the workmanship of who we are in Him.

Note below how many become engaged in the industry of death...

1- I like to had died after hearing about that! You almost scarred me to death when you told me so!

2- Surely someone in the family must have passed away for you to call my house after 1:00 am in the morning..! Are you crazy? That sort of thing scares me to death...

3- I am the official collector of dead family members antiques and furniture! I just sit by and wait for another one to die...I have 4 living room sets in my living room, 3 dining sets in my dining room, and a dozen bedroom sets in my 3 bedroom house. {Covetous and greed, killed Achan you know, and Gehazi}

4- Daily, I look through the obituaries to see if anyone I know had passed away! I just have a thing for reading and collecting obituaries...got a whole bank box size of them in my downstairs cellar or basement...

5- I'm afraid of getting old or dying young. Call me sometimes to see if I'm alive! I could be dead before then end of the day. It could happen to you, too. Pray for me please...

6- Did you see the news recently? It must be the end of the world, this is it, the big one, O dear, O Lord, O God! Come quickly Jesus! Or in the words of Dr. Smith in the 1960's tv series "Lost in Space," "O Dear, I'm too young to die!"

7- I always sense accidents every time I go traveling across the city, state, or country! I have the gift of suspecting death at every corner and at every turn...Hmm, someone's going to die around here soon, I can feel it, really!"

Yes beloved, Death is an industry, a business if you will, and always have been. Even in legitimate spheres and circles of influence such as the Hospitals, Nursing homes, Mortuaries, Funeral homes, and the Coroner's office, death takes no holiday! Yet we do appreciate these venues to accomodate the loss of loved ones, and the particular care and attention these venues give in their detailed professions and delicate tasks.

However, we must challenge and confront any death structures building root within our minds, such as through unforgiveness, open inner wounds, bearing grudges which is a desire for revenge, and more. And let's reference for a moment the words of Paul the apostle, "For this cause many are {downside} weak [30] and sickly [60] among you, and many sleep [100]." Why? Because we don't discern the Lord's body. Whether the Lord's supper, the body of Christ, or our own physical body. I Cor. 11:29-30

Moving Right Along

The principles of immortality can benefit believers now... And here's how! [Hebrews 6:5]

One important dimension of this is in the spoken word of the Lord, what HE has said, and...what He is saying NOW concerning what He has said and spoken...An important feature and earmark of this life being manifested in HIS way and in HIS design is how we create atmospheres and environments within us, as the external world is attracted to how we frame, form, and fashion our internal linguistics to speak and to respond.

We can speak things into existence, but what is the point in this if we keep doing things contrary to HIS focus, or if our heart is not in it?

What benefit is there to speak "Debt Cancellation" while practicing poor stewardship in the simple everyday matters of our life? Why declare a new marriage and exercise and old mindset of holding on to fears and phobias of the past, or with a slight resentment or retaliation towards your spouse now that he or she is on fire for the Lord and the spotlight is somehow taken from you, the once spiritual giant for you and your spouse combined, the so-called and unofficial voice of the Lord for everyone else?

{There is a word for this, which is simply called being busy bodies in other people's affairs, nothing remotely spiritual about it...}

Am I hitting home here saints? I sense something deep in my resonating being when I am bringing up marriages at this time...

Continuing on, by living His life in us {Galatians 2:20}, we have the divine enabling to transmit or transfer this same LIFE attitude [In him there is no failure, death, fear, confusion, unbelief, etc.] into our souls and bodies, not limiting ourselves to a baser existence of "I'm only Human, I'm just a man!" Once we discover that it is not by our life that we live, but by the Lord's, it will begin to put us at rest from striving in our humanity to live or attain anything.

The spirit of man is saved by the Lord himself... [spirit has been saved]
The soul of man is saved by the life he lives in his spirit...[soul is being saved]
The body of corruption puts on incorruption, mortal to immortality...[body will be saved]

Once we have identified with what Christ has already done from the perspective of "spirit," {that which is born of the Spirit if Spirit, or literally, Spirit gives Birth to Spirit}... our soul is to be renewed to it, and our bodies will manifest the glory of it.

For beloved, it's in the renewing of the mind as recorded in Romans 12:2...And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed [metamorphoo- change] by the renewing of your mind...

Also...

The change of nature [spirit] leads to a change of mind [soul], and body. The whole constitution is changed and transformed from Glory to Glory, not gory to gory...smile

We shall be changed [to make different]...1 Corinthians 15:51

Are changed [metamorphoo] into the same image from glory to glory...2 Corinthians 3:18

Yes beloved, mortality is being swallowed up now by his endless life....

It begins in the spirit, and pours over into the soul. That is one reason why Paul said to be renewed in the Spirit of our mind...Ephesians 4
Now...

Are our lives living the evidence of a change of nature?

If not, that is where the problem is! For we are living a lesser and inferior life, abashed at the radiant glory of the ascended and higher LIFE!

It is not always a satan issue, but a carnal mind issue!

For your real enemy is between your ears and above your nose! satan is not the god of my world, or yours. We have been translated into the kingdom of His dear Son.

"You have been living in a dream world Neo!" Quote from the character Morpheus from the movie "The Matrix."

Back to 2 Corinthians 5:1-5

Life begins in the Elohim...

This same life is summed up in John 14:6 as Jesus is the way, the truth, the LIFE.

In 2 Corinthians 5:1-5 life again is spoken of, but not only to be reserved for an after death experience. And what I am sharing here does not lend to elitism either, unless one steward their mind to such frivolous thinking and wayward notions.

Divine life is not claiming immortality out of context, but it begins with the reality of what Christ has already done, and the gradual moving into the greater reality of kingdom principles which takes the believer past the spirit and soul stage, into the body stage of manifesting victory in the physical man for HIS intended and eternal purpose. Ephesians 2:1-8.

It does not discount why people suddenly or gradually die, nor does it carry a condescending attitude towards others who are not measuring up to another's expectations.

I too, came through the Manifest Sons teaching many years ago and had discovered a few proponents who exclaimed "Never die," with an air of self-importance... yet they died, most of them...So whatever dimension of grace and glory the Father is bringing us into, it must be robed in agape, humility, servant-leadership, and brokenness.

It may even be a sharp two-edge sword, but never let it become a critical spirit. If pride is the culprit in the pulpit, then just read Proverbs 6 on the destructive nature of pride, as knowledge Puffs Up, but charity "Builds Up!" Notice the distinct difference here.

The new {or "RE} birth is the beginning of mortality being swallowed up into life...2 Corinthians 5:4

A lack of understanding of the re-birth is one main reason as to why believers do not enjoy the benefits of The Greater and Abundant Life, for many exclaim that it is only after death, or is impossible to live NOW in this world. This kind of thinking spills over into other expressions of one's life, sabotaging other distinctive ways of living, including marriage, the church, business, etc.

The new birth or in truth the re-birth is the key to unlocking the eternity and mysteries of God from within you. The change of nature called "the New Creation Man" will ultimately effect every facet of our being. 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Ecclesiastes 12:13

If the RE-birth has sown the incorruptible seed of life within us, we will reap life anew as reconciliation does not stop at the redeemed spirit, but is being made manifest in all spheres of our life. God IN Christ reconciles all things unto himself. And beloved, all means all, and Christ is ALL in ALL.

The increase of himself is evident through the incorruptible seed planted in us as confirmed by 1 Peter 1:23...that seed can not sin, and that seed is the DNA {Divine Nature Activated} of God himself. Seed sown, harvest and full grown...Being born again [or, born from above...John 3:3, 7], not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which live and abide for ever.

You are born anew of immortal, not of mortal seed...Mof

By God's living and enduring word...Wey

God the Father wants to increase himself in us. According to John 3:30, "He must increase, and we must decrease." So often, we would misquote this scripture by emphasizing our decrease first, and His increase last, but that is not how it works. For how can you decrease without his increase?

Therefore, we must set our affection and priority on HIM who is al-to-gether lovely, his divine ability and enablement,, his accomplishments, and not ours...

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection [or mind] on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ with God. Colossians 3:1-3

Also, read James 3:17 and Isaiah 9:7

But God that gives the increase. I Corinthians 3;7

Increaseth with the increase of God. Colossians 2:19

And the Lord make you to increase...I Thessalonians 3:12

Every day, his life is increasing in us. Every day, his nature is unfolding from within us. And every day, there is a new substance of the Christ made manifest in us.

In simple terms, it is the ever increasing nature of Christ in you, the hope {anticipation and expectation} of glory. Colossians. 1:27

The mortality swallowed up in life is the fullness of the incorruptible seed sown in us. It is the seed sown on good ground as confirmed in the following scripture...

But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word [30-fold], and understandeth it [60-fold]; which also beareth fruit [100-fold], and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Matthew 13:23

Yes beloved, the mortality swallowed up in life is the process of redemption he had begun in us. It is in part, the earnest of the Spirit according to Ephesians 1:13-14, as verse 14 concludes..."until the redemption of the purchased possession..." Meaning, God is after what he has started in us. Therefore beloved, let the life of Christ live through you from conception to perfection, for this is only just the beginning! Change of mind comes through a change of nature.

Free the mind and the body will follow. The light of the body is in the eye, new perception and focus, new mindset, a new mentality. Lift up your heads O you gates, and be lifted up everlasting doors, and the King of Glory will come in...Psalms 24...

May we continue to enjoy mortality swallowed up in LIFE as we renew our minds to the Word of LIFE! In him was LIFE, and that life becomes the Light of men. The light shines in darkness, and the darkness does not seize, possess, or take eagerly such LIGHT of LIFE...John 1:5

Let your light {and your divine enlightenment, the eyes of our understanding being enlightened "photizo"...Ephesians 1:18} shine before men...bringing glory to the Father...For you will light {and already has lit} our candle Lord, you will enlighten our darkness {Hebrew - Chosek - "misery, destruction, death, ignorance, sorrow, wickedness, night, obscurity, darkness"}...Psalms 118:28

I shall not die {living in a death consciousness, necro-mancing, killing, destroying, having a need to slay others with my tongue, living in a downward spiral or a rut which is a grave with both ends kicked out, a living nightmare}, but {to} live {revive, make alive, nourish up, quicken, recover, repair, restore to life, save, be whole} and declare {to score with a mark as a tally or record, to enumerate, recount, celebrate, commune, reckon, speak, talk, tell, write} the works {the action, transaction, business, occupation, operation, etc.} of the Lord...Psalms 118:17

Apostolic Blessings, Feed the Seed and Nurture HIS nature for by divine enlightenment you are Becoming what you already are.

{3} Living From The Unseen

For this cause we faint not {not become weary}; but though the outward man perish {to rot thoroughly, ruin, decay utterly, corrupt, and destroy}, yet the INWARD man is renewed {to renovate} day by day. For our light affliction {pressure, tribulation, anguish, trouble, burden, and persecution}, that is, but for a moment, works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things, which are seen are temporal but the things which are not seen are eternal 2 Corinthians 4:16-18

A great part of our life is lived in the dimension of soul and body, though that is a part of our whole constitution. However, many have not begun to live the hidden life, the life of the shekinah {most holy place}, but rather, by the glory of the sun {outer court} and the golden candlesticks {holy place}. Meaning, it is rather possible for many to abound largely in the soulical and bodily dimension, as if this is the only basis, bedrock, and foundation for our earthly existence.

For millions, life is in the domain of the senses. Many lives begin in the morning with sensations... {Mmm! Smell that coffee brewing!...busted!, lol}, or {Gotta have that cup before I can get started on my way!}. Yet, for others it goes something like this...

"Can't end the day without my sweets! I feel a sugar fit coming on!"

"Gotta have me some TV to keep my sanity!"

"My house must remain 100% fresh & clean 23 hours and 56 minutes a day, or I'll lose my mind up in here, up in here!"

"How's Arthur doing?" O, you know, my arthritis is coming along just fine and thanks for asking!"

"It's magnificent and marvelous Monday folks! O yeah {says another}, what's so marvelous about it? It's still raining outside, my new car is become dirty due to the weather conditions! My new shoes got a scuffmark on them! And my husband fixed breakfast this morning, burning the toast, overcooking the eggs, while serving frozen sausage links that remained frozen on my plate. So you tell me, what's magnificent and marvelous about that?"

"Ah, someone brushed against my shoulders in the elevator at work. I feel like this could be the dream love of my life, for the scent of their perfume {or cologne} remains with me all day! Surely this must be my new mate, the one I have been fasting for in the last six years {R.I.P.}! Yep! I'm certain that this person is the one, because they always wear the scents that I like to smell! Always fresh and clean, and you know what that means? Like attracts like, right!"

For many, the physical sensory realm dominates their life. Surely senses are a big part of our physical man, and add a touch of un-renewed soul to it, and you've got a normal, average, and mundane level of living. However, without denigrating the soul and the body, let us put things into its proper context and perspective. For the soul renewed in the ascendancy of the spirit unto God, and the body reinforcing the life given nature of the soul' expression of the hidden spirit, can be a powerful force in one's life.

So from here, we shall take a brief look at the dimension of the Unseen, Living from the Unseen!

In the case with Mary and Martha, Martha was never considered a bad person for wanting to get or have things done on the domestic scale while in the company of the Lord {I could have said "Presence," but}. The concern was, she did not focus on what was most important at the moment, nor seizing and maximizing the moment. It was not the time to remain incumbered with daily chores although she had a legitimate right to express herself in this wise. However, it was time to lay at the feet of the Lord, to worship the King if you will.

That is why there is in one sense no such thing as TIME Management, rather, PRIORITY Management, and that stems from the Priority of the King and HIS Kingdom. We can potentially get into a rut {a grave with both ends kicked out} with our routine, expending a lot of physical and mental energy doing, doing, and doing, while failing to see the importance of quieting ourselves in the presence of the Lord to become, become, and to become, which is to simply BE YE, for I AM...

Again, it is a matter of priority. And with this in mind, the life of the overcomer is not largely about binding and loosing from the 2nd day dimension, where the emphasis is placed on devils. But in the 3rd Day, Binding and Loosing is "I bind you to the Kingdom of God, and I loose you to Go forth into HIS purpose, plans, mind, will, and the divine intention of God and Destiny for your life"}, well, something on those lines, lol}.

LIFE in HIM who is altogether lovely is characterized largely in an intimate abiding, a yielded LIFE. The Bind and Loosing then, is covenantal, and not from the dispensational slant. Binding and Loosing then, from the 3rd Day, is connected to the SON, and not the man of SIN {Consciousness} in the temple {Naos}...Simply put, there is more beloved...let the river flow...

For a moment let's look below at some important observations of the treasure of the heart, and where many focus in on in one degree or another...

1 - All of Mount Zion is in Jerusalem, but all of Jerusalem is not in Mount Zion. See the difference! {Many are called, few are chosen: strait is the gate and narrow {Holy of Holies} is the way. Few of course find it.}

2 - Many people have a house to live in, but it is not a home at all. Get it! The early Greeks believed that a home was the place where you really wanted to be.

3 - Too many of us are adding years to our lives, but are not adding LIFE to our years. Do you see the bigger picture? We sometimes tend to age sooner than others of our very own age. But is it merely about aging, or are we to start maturing in the eternal purposes of God for a bold new destiny? Do we live by the temporal or the eternal, the seen or the unseen? Is chronology the determining factor, or is life perceived from the hidden dimension of 2 Corinthians 4:18?

4 - A number of saints are into extreme debt through extravagant spending, not giving their money a vision, a mission, an assignment, and a purpose while preparing to pray witchcraft prayers over the collectors and credit reporting agencies. Some have even prayed that the Holy Spirit would erase their derogatory credit report, and to put misery and shame on the credit collectors, perhaps kill them for attempting to collect a debt.

Such reasoning concludes that others are overwhelmingly against them, seeing that they themselves have overextended their credit card limit and expect the Lord to work miracle wonders among them. But what you have here is not a lack of cash at all, but a lack of control. A lot of our problems come from the way we steward or manage our goods. In most cases it is not a direct opposition of the enemy, though he is an author of confusion... rather, the person living above our nose and between our ears: the person we really care not to confront inside.

Yet, in these and other countless examples is it impossible to live life from the unseen, amid the drastic and dramatic changes of one's life? Is there a hope to the hurried and abundant grace for the worried? Can the saints really live life from the realm of the unseen, or is there nothing else to see?

Now what I'm about to say may ruffle a few feathers, but in all honesty, many believers spend a lot of time investing in Christian books on how to empower and preserve the human nature, how to empower mere self. In fact, book sales are skyrocketing on the practical application of becoming a better person, a better human being, and that's cool in one sense. However, there is a divine restlessness, a divine discontent if you will, a birth of desire, and a tsunami rumbling from beneath the surface and appearance of things...

This coming forth if you will is in part the coming and appearing or the revealing of the Lord in HIS body {and I am speaking from a corporate collective dimension here}...Christ in you the hope or expectation and anticipation of HIS glory {Colossians 1:27}, the breaking forth of the hidden man amid the throes and woes of the day. For this life has nothing to do with empowering the first Adam, for he was made a living soul. However, this life has to do with the last Adam, the quickening Spirit, who is the Lord from heaven. Notice below these observations...{1st Corinthians 15}

Turkeys - Eagles

Saul - David

Adam {Living Soul} - Christ {Quickening Spirit}

First man of the earth, earthy - Second man, the Lord from Heaven

Cain - Abel

Diotrephes - Demetrius

Works Mentality {Me, myself, and I} - Rest in the Lord {Abiding with Christ}

Bound on earth, bound from heaven - Loosed on earth, loosed in heaven

The Mount of Esau - Mount Zion {Saviors of Obadiah}

The above category simply reveals where our priorities lie. And it also confirms the treasure of our hearts, either on earth where moth and rust corrupt, or in heaven {the heavenlies}, where thieves cannot break in and steal...Matthew 6, Kingdom living, receiving and releasing the King and his kingdom...

Continuing in the Unseen dimension...

But now is made manifested by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death, and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 2 Timothy 1:10

The gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ brings to light life and immortality, the very substance of the Spirit, the tangibility of his eternal presence, the very pure nature of Jesus Christ, the WORD becoming flesh and dwelling among us. Yes beloved, in the midst of hell and high water, the Lord is revealing himself, for HE, the Lord, is in the midst of us!

In the toughest situation hard for the mind to grasp or to fathom, and in times of uncertainty, fear, apprehension, and hopelessness the Lord is making known himself as the Most High God of the Most Holy Place.

In the affirmation of Melchisedec, there is the king-priest ministry, the Lion and the Lamb, the Word and the Spirit as he blesses Abram {who became Abraham} as the possessor of heaven and earth {both realms belong to the overcomer}. This very substance of the confirming and living TRUTH went into Abram, into Sarai {Dominate} to Sarah {Noble Lady}, all the way into the womb of Mary in the New Testament. {Jesus - possessor of heaven and earth - Matthew 28:18}, multiplied in Christ his body, the last Adam and quickening Spirit, the Corporate Christ and Many membered SON...

Therefore beloved we must take heed that in all of the plans of our day, challenges, and the most desparate of times there is an active life-force, a resurgence of deeper depths, a foundation to support the highest skyscraper, and a realm of life that is not defined {nor confined} by the temporal at work in us.

There is, beloved, the life of Acts 17:28, as we live, move, and have our being in HIM. There is the release of the Spirit crying out in the broad streets, the Wisdom of God crying out in the chief places to the ones who love simplicity {"I don't want to grow up, I'm a toys for us kid"}, and to the fools that delight in their scorning. {Proverbs 1:20-33}

Ah, don't you sense another dimension at work here in you beloved?

Will you discern and arise to the higher calling, a call, which did not begin with household chores, professional careers, and certificates of ordination from your ecclesiastical associations? Are you living life from the unseen, or by the current world news of doomsday prophecies? Is life a frantic frustration, or a flowing brook of the endless streams of the manifest presence of the Lord?

Have we become so caught up in the Lord's presents, without enjoying his presence {Hebrew - His face}? Or will we press on into the inner dimension, the realm of the hidden man, the unfading glory of the Lord and His unlimited glory?

In Hebrews 11:1-6, I can't help but bring to mind the primary thrust of so many in the second day mentality, how the scripture were used repeatedly to ascribe faith to what we can get from God {though there is an element of truth therein}, as oppose to whom we are to become, for we BECOME whom we worth-ship, and we are to KNOW HIM, and to make Him known.

I can't help but wonder how for so long, we majored on our faith, when this proceeding word became the foundation of abiding by HIS faith {Hebrews 12}. HIS faith in US, the Faith or convictions of God...

Now in Hebrews 11 Enoch is mentioned as a man that pleased God living between two realms, yet totally absorbed and vacuumed up into the unlimited glory and eternal essence of the Lord right here in earth, the higher life, life in the ascendancy.

For such a man as this, which little is said in verbatim, yet much is said in the writing of the Spirit. For Enoch represents a powerful pattern of being caught up unto God, living in this world, but living by the realm of the unseen, the hidden dimension whereas in principle the Hidden Manna {Mann-Feast to Mani-FEST}.

Enoch was the 7th from Adam and prophesied the coming of the Lord with the saints in the book of Jude. In essence, Enoch was a prophet of a whole different order, mastering both realms, and like Jesus in John 3:13, the Son of Man which is IN heaven while In earth at the same time...

There is something marvelous going on in the realm of Spirit here, as Enoch also represents the 7th day son-rise, a man of translation, a man whose life correlates to Christ as HE too, had the testimony of pleasing God. Enoch, 7th from Adam, likened to the 7th day from Adam in Spirit, and Christ, risen in glory on the 3rd day, via, a 3rd day people.

So Enoch the 7th from Adam or 7th day, and the 3rd day resurrection and ascension of Christ together is what we are now experiencing in present truth. Meaning, the 7th day from Adam and the 3rd day from Christ's resurrection is one and the same.

It is the rest of God and the Resurrection of the saints, the days of the voice of the 7th angel in Revelation 10:7. It is the day when Rest meets Resurrection, the breath of their lips emerging as one in an intimate marital kiss. It is the marriage and oneness of heaven and earth, 3 the number of heaven and 4 the number of earth, 3 and 4 equalling 7, the oneness of God and man - IN earth as IN heaven...

Moving right along, how about John the Baptizer? He was a man of two eras, bringing foreclosure to one era, and becoming a forerunner in another. For in life there is termination and germination, a letting go of one realm, to abide gloriously in another!

Stephen lived there, even in the stoning of his body to death in Acts 7. He saw the heavens opened, and the Son of God standing on the right hand of the Father.

This is why the saints are encouraged to put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and to let that mind be in us which was also in Christ. For a major kingdom truth is we must reaffirm the hidden man, the hidden and inner dimension and the glorious unfolding of the MYSTERY Christ as the REVEALED Christ. We are to reaffirm that we are the New Creation MAN in Christ, for again, there is the phrase, IN CHRIST. For IN CHRIST dwells all of the fullness of the godhead bodily.

IN CHRIST there is neither Jew nor Gentile, but all made to drink into ONE SPIRIT. IN CHRIST circumcision nor uncircumcision avails to nothing, but faith, which works by love, being new creations in the Messiah. {Galatians 5:6; 6:15}

This too, was the life of the apostles, in reaffirming the hidden wisdom and the glorious unfolding of the essence of God's own self, even in the midst of adversity. For why else would Paul the apostle conclude saying he has fought a good fight, finishing the course, and have kept the faith? And why did so many, upon witness of the thousands of martyred saints in early Roman era exclaim that they wanted something to live for, even something worth dying for?

O beloved, ascribe no longer worth to the hectic and hurried schedule of your life, that you are merely existing to work, work, work, or that your tired body is soon to wither away.

Begin now to ascribe worth to the heavenly Father in the hidden and unseen dimension, the God who inhabits eternity, and recognize that life with the Father {The Ancient of Days, the Hoary and Wool Head of the Lord} in the unseen realm is more real than what appears to be to the optic nerve.

For In Hebrews 11:3 the things that are seen were not made by things, which do appear. Therefore, we must give attention and earnest heed to a new and living way, a dimension of grace and glory that reaches deep within, calling those things that be not, as though they were. Romans 4:17

Let us move pass the five senses, or as the woman at the well that had five husbands {Body}, beyond the 6th man who was not her husband {unsatisfied Soul}, into the 7th man {Spirit} which is the Lord himself. {John 4:17-18; Isaiah 11:1-3; Proverbs 9:1-6}

Let us see that there is life in the unseen, or the way the Father SEES things, and that we can live from the unseen and hidden dimension, the glory of the Most Holy Place, the light of LIFE which is HIS radiant glory, not lit to candlesticks by men, and not governed by the sight of the sun.

As we stop for now, consider the words of Paul the apostle in 2nd Corinthians 5:4

{read verses 1-8 as well}...

For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life...2 Cor. 5:4

So, when all the kids are seemingly getting on your nerve - My Life is Hid with Christ in God...

When the boss puts the pressure on you more than others - My life is Hid with Christ in God...

When the foods you prepare just seem to end in a flare {of flames} - My life is Hid with Christ in God...

When your spouse resents you for gaining excessive weight - My life is Hid with Christ in God...

When your lemonade {Automobile} becomes a lemon - My life is Hid with Christ in God...

When you felt like the prophets of the assembly have passed you up six months in a row, giving powerful words of grace to all others - My life is Hid with Christ in God...

When your assembly has not grown in five years and the other preachers in the neighborhood snicker and sneer at your so-called fledging membership - My life is Hid with Christ in God...

When you have labored endlessly to make others rich in the treasures of HIS glory and no one return to give thanks to God for your labor of love - My LIFE is HID with CHRIST in GOD...

Beloved, take time now to enjoy the new depths and dimensions that are welling up from inside of you, the eruption of the Hidden Man, the Last Adam, and the Quickening Sprit. Begin now to Mani-Fest what you Manna-Feast.

This manna is not the manna {What is it? Some cereal, its suppose to be good for you. Did you try it? I'm not going to you try it, you try it...Hey, let's get Mikey, he won't eat it, he hates everything. He likes it, hey Mikey?} of pre-promised land eating, but the Hidden manna Christ, the Golden Pot of manna in the 3rd dimension, the Hidden Life beyond the veil of no limitations.

There is life and life more abundantly! – John 10:10

There is deep which calls unto the deep! Psalms 42:7

There is a river that makes glad the city of our God – Psalms 46:4

And there is LIFE after the death of the Carnal mind – Romans 8

In closing, Theresa just came by in the office study to bring to mind Hebrews 12:2 - 3...

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher {leader and completer} of our faith. Who for the JOY that was set before him {clear focus, vision, one heart with the Father} endured the cross, despised the shame, and is sitting down right NOW with the Father. {He had us in mind the whole time – US in the word Jesus!}

She shared this with me this evening to encourage my heart that the labor is not in vain and that our focus is not on rewards, but the passion to do HIS will. According to John 4:32-34

Apostolic Blessings, Covenant Promises, Kingdom Expansion and the unfolding of His glory in Jesus' name! Amen

{4} WHOSE LIFE ARE WE LIVING?

Hmm! 40 hours a week for 40 years only to retire with 40% reduction in pay? Is that it? Is that the sum total of our LIFE's existenZ {no misspelling here}???

Do we discount those who work rigorously to make an honest, lawful, and legitimate living in the social streams of life? Absolutely Not!

However the kingdom is transforming and transferring our thinking from church to kingdom, and if the kingdom produces the church, and the Ascension ministries {the Multiplied Christ unto a number which John saw that could no man could count} perfect, equip, and mature the saints, than what are the saints here for?

Why, to possess the Kingdom...Daniel 7:14, 18, 21, 27...Revelation 11:15...the destiny of the nations, marketplace and workforce interpenetration, kingdom influence through revelation which becomes revolutionary, radical, relevant, an relational...to change our world through Dominion, the first Great Commission versus the Great Commotion...the image of God filling the whole earth...Genesis 1:26, 28, Genesis 11

There is something profound within you and me crying out to fulfill the mandated mission, message, and ministry that we were born to BE and born to DO from His predetermined counsel and eternal purpose. With the Quickening Spirit of the Last Adam our passion is become our priority as we empower our genes or genius {Genesis, Genealogy, the Genetic Code of HIS DNA, Divine Nature Activated} in doing what the Father purposely intended for us to do, for doing comes out of being. If we only wait to live when we retire, then we have not lived at all. There is something within our being which says I was born to live LIFE to the fullest, the overflow of God, God inside out, and HIS image filling the entire earth...There is so much more to LIFE!

So {Whose} LIFE are we living?

{Whose} LIFE Are We Living?

Resulting in WHOM we believe and not just WHAT we believe...

There is an old saying which goes...

1 - Give a man a fish and you will feed him for a day...

2 - Teach a man how to fish and you will feed him for a lifetime...But...

3 - NOW, the man needs a job, a career, a cash flow, an outlet to put his new found skills to work. Teach him now how to cook and grill fish, to make ceramic fish, design paintings of fish, boats to fish in, fishing hooks, fish tanks, to produce fish food, Oceanography, sailing, swimming instructions, and more... Here, we are tapping into creative imagination, something which did not begin with being deemed as Christian...lol...

Fishing is the nature of God in His disciples of old, to know their market, to elicit a strategy, to develop a business plan, to package themselves assuredly to launch out into the deep to cast for their nets {yes, plural - nets}. That's why teaching a man how to fish is broadened from mere concept to transference, to becoming a principle of LIFE. The principle of fishing is simply a metaphor, a simile, a symbol of something far reaching and far revealing then just fishing to catch, cook, and to eat fish.

It is the principle of improving your serve, maximizing the moment, and to collectively put your hands to good use... In this the fisherman {marketplace and the FISH Gate of Nehemiah} has discovered the power of inner resourcing and connectivity, and utilizing new strategies, logisitics, and designs to excel in the daily and practical dimension of LIFE!

Now, let's take this to another level of discussion...

Beloved, many of us today go through the so-called gambit of life, trying to make a move across the chess board from one side to the other, hoping {or was that hopping} to make that big score and WIN. We desperately and feverishly try implementing this move over that move, and we ponder and scrutinize meticulously each move in a delicate fashion, anticipating the ultimate goal and climatic outcome of winning, while sometimes despising the game itself.

We come to discover without coming to grips that life has its share of surprises. Some expect the best for themselves on one hand, and on the other, the worse. Life seems to have thrown us one curve ball after the next, and some adhere to certain expressions such as "Fake it to you make it or die trying!"

But I say, "Why fake it at all?" Is there more to LIFE than just making the big score, the touchdown of the day? Have we ever played a sports game and lost with dignity, or are we sore losers in the game of life? Do we enter the game with a winning attitude which produces a winning walk, or do we view each contrary outcome as unprofitable, equating and conceding that each negative experience is a sign of our defeat? Whose LIFE are we Living Anyway?

Ever tried calling late hours from the Pacific Time Zone to a relative living in the Eastern Time Zone? If you catch them on the phone, how do you expect they might answer?

What if the Eastern Standard Time relative reacted to the call by assuming the worse simply because the call for them would be very late night {about 3 hours difference}? People do, you know. I can remember times in the past when calling someone from the preceding time zone, only for them to ask in a hysterical and fretting tone of voice "What's wrong Tim? Ah, eh, who died?"

I would respond with a chuckle by saying, "I am fine, we all are fine, and no one in the family is reported as having passed! All is well!" But sometimes, that response would not suffice for some as they would pick, pry and explore every possibility that something is definitely wrong, and perhaps with me for calling them so late in the hour in the first place.

I would also admit to such persons "My apology for calling so late in their estimated time zone, but I wanted to catch up with them and let them know how we were doing." So relief would settle in for the other person from the Eastern Seaboard, even though they desperately peruse and skim through the newspaper obituaries daily to see if anyone they may possibly know has passed away...

Mrs. {A} and Mrs. {B}

Two women, Mrs. {A} and Mrs. {B}, longtime and lifetime friends since 3 years of age, married with grown children, living side by side in a fashionable home, are having a moment in time when their job security might be threatened. Both women, long time school mates, have lived next door to each other for several years. They made a pack as little girls to marry a guy of similar mold, to have the same number of children, to wear the same or similar clothing, and to do just about everything exactly the same. They vowed friendship for life no matter what. In addition they have worked for the same company for almost 20 years, only to find that their jobs may be coming to an end.

Mrs. {A} now becomes panicky about her future. Her husband, as well as the husband of Mrs. {B} have boasted successful careers in chemical engineering. If either of the ladies were to be terminated, both husband's income would be more than sufficient to take care of things. For in the opinion of these two proudly esteemed gents, they provide the necessities while their wives provide the "nice - ities."

So, while off to work for one last time, Mrs. {A} and Mrs. {B} are having an intense discussion along the way. Mrs. {A} abruptly suddenly in tears and exclaims that things are not as good as they use to be, for she is about to be terminated from her long standing job. But Mrs. {B} says, "I beg to differ with you, seeing that this termination is leading to germination, a foreclosure preparing us as forerunners, for I sense a higher calling in LIFE, a greater Glory, not a great Gory!"

Mrs. {B} assures Mrs. {A} that this is important to be thankful in the process, and not to despise small {or new} beginnings or in cursing her crisis." Mrs. {A} gives hint that she does not quite understand why Mrs. {B} has maintained her cool, calm, and collected composure during this entire time. She begins to feel that Mrs. {B} is becoming sarcastic with her, toying with her emotions, or is using a whole new charming approach to divert Mrs. {A} from expressing her obvious fears.

You see, Mrs. {A} is not concerned the most with the lost of income stability, but the sense that this job was one of her most important accomplishments in her entire life, $44,000 a year plus bonuses, and an obese turkey for Christmas, plus office parties and other incentives. The benefit package at her once famed and generous corporation was one of the best in town, and the holiday's, O, those holidays! I know, been there, done that many years ago...

The Ancient of Days is speaking...There is a hidden message here...

Deep in Mrs. {A}'s inner being, is a sense of failure as she not only married a successful engineer, but a perfectionist. What appeared to be on the outside as one of the luckiest {We are not lucky, but blessed} couples around was simply a smoke screen for her true appearance of things.

Mike, the husband of Mrs. {A} is extremely impatient, cold, and calculated. Mike is a neat freak from the planet Jupiter {Zeus} and does not tolerate nor settle for excuses as in his estimation, this is weak, futile, and not up to discussion. He also has an office at home and he admits that he is obsessed about minute things and that things has to be done in according ORDER, his... by the way.

Even though Mrs. {A} held on to a stabilizing career, it was not the lost in pay that she lamented over, but the idea of having a good job to spend as much time away from Mike as possible. For Mike is a firecracker, combustible, and at anytime ready to explode. If he had his way at home, he would work Mrs. {A} to the ground like grinding powder, but then, they had both hired a maid several years ago.

Mrs. {A}'s job security was more like her own emotional insecurity, as the job guaranteed her sanity, relief for about 10 hours a day, 8 hours work including an hour lunch, half hour each way to work and back.

Now a few weeks later Mrs. {A} becomes a home maker, and Mike wants to control all of her time. Mikey boy gives her a list of demands to meet on the clock and without fail while she is at home. In Mike's world, you have to be busy almost 24/7, for businesses validates his existence, and there is a reason why he esteems such lack of esteem.

Later in the day Mrs. {B} arrives at Mrs. {A}'s home for a hot cup of decaffeinated green tea with a slice of mango to flavor it and discovers Mrs. {A} in the foyer, with a long, blank look on her face. Mrs. {B} engages in a conversation with a minimum of questions to Mrs. {A}, you know, surface stuff just to get a chat of a conversation started. But Mrs. {A} is about to break, seeing that she has withheld from Mrs. {B} just how unbearable Mike really has been in almost all of their marriage. For Mrs. {A}, being Married has become being Marred...

Now the plot thickens...

Mike appears to control all of her time, calls her every 45 minutes to see what she is up to, or not. Mike only perceived Mrs. {A}'s former job as part of his master plan, status quo, community image...keeping up with the Jones' {The Jones' who were divorced a long time ago anyway...lol or lamenting out loud}...If Mrs. {A} were ever sick and made a call not to come in for work, Mike would push and shove her {and pinch her, too} to go to work, look the part, and die trying if she had to. For she married a perfectionist, a regimented soldier of his own fortune, a selfish systemization whose core values are premised on pain from his early childhood development.

Mrs. {A} pours out profusely in words and in tears, as all of a sudden, Mrs. {B} interjects with words of empathy, and a rather provoking thought for today's discovery. Mrs. {B} admits that she does have a perfectly good understanding with her own dear husband whose name is Tom, and that he is a sweetheart and a teddy bear indeed. Mrs. {B} enlightens Mrs. {A} that perfectionism is a deep rooted inner turmoil and conditioning and a deceitful value and that Mike could be suffering inside with other dilemmas unknown and untold. Perhaps Mike was not permitted to cry as a child about things, or to keep things in a hush while his parents led him around like an alternate or parallel universe of Hitler on the mild side of his insanity.

Of course all of this is spoken with tact and poise, and with the deepest and delicate care and consideration in mind. B's friend, Mrs. {A} begins to share that their marriages are nothing alike. She realizes that Mrs. {B} is perceiving the lost job as a stepping stone or an opportunity to excel in another arena of LIFE and not as some lost cause. Mrs. {A} confesses that their lives are not twin towers as she had once presumed, but differing views of life from their own front porch, each esteemed in part by the internal state and representation that each have of themselves. For the internal representation is how you see yourself, how we talk to ourselves, what we say to ourselves. We all have these internal states, but all don't steward them in a most positive, productive, profound, and prolific way.

Like Mrs. {A}, we strive with every desperate attempt to mask the life that we are living inside while parading and prancing to others that we have it all together from the outside. We tend to validate our existence with approval from others, or disapproval of our own selves, rehashing that we are never good enough to live with, taking on the distorted notion, imagery, and second opinion of an inferior revelation, a demagogue, or a conceivable lie that we are worth or valued little to nothing in God, and to certain others. From there on, we live life from dark shadows and whispering voices of fear from the hidden past, only to appear successful in all external phases, but in truth, not very successful {authentic} at all.

Many of us have encountered some internal struggles and apparent opposition within our own self, Jacob wrestled with an angel, or was that the closure of his identity crisis? Was Jacob about to become a whole different life form? Was Jacob in essence wrestling with himself? {Isaiah 43:1}

Like Mrs. {A} and {B}, both realized that their pretty little world was vastly different from each others. On all of the above surfaces, things couldn't have looked any better, but an intense test or trial came into view, and a major life decision was about to be made {lol, I can hear in my mind the voice of Don LaFontaine, voice actor famous for recording over 5000 movie trailers, television commercials, network promotions, and video game trailers}...

Perhaps the job ended in a providential way for Mrs. {A} for her to confront the inner turmoil, and torn emotional states inside for having to marry a husband who had little physical contact from his own mother, a demanding woman who demoralized him in his childhood. It wasn't just Mrs. {A} who was hurting inside, but also Mikey Boy...Brief Conclusion of Mrs. A & B story near then end of today's exhortation and impartation...stay tuned, we'll be right back...

Life and Light

Perhaps what seemed to have been a lost cause was actually a gain, a new source of inner strength and courage {It takes courage to encourage}, a defining moment, a turning point, an epiphany, a passing of the baton to make ready the awesome discovery of the undiscovered country, meaning, YOU!

Like many today, we borrow our esteem from a hurried life or from the negative perception of our past failures, deep rooted phobias, inordinate drives, and the core values of this world system...

But do keep in mind that the Lord never consults your wavering past to determine your glorious future...your posterity, your destination, your expected end...Jeremiah 29:11...He has already settled the matter in heaven, and it is to be manifest on earth...

God is not in the business of making us unhappy or sad, or satisfying our ever whim of imagination. Neither is he in the business of pumping our head full of inflated ideas of never having to encounter some form of challenging process in life or to avoid entirely the pressure cooker of life changes...

So the question I hold today is, "What... {Whose} LIFE {Light} Are We Living?"

Are we living from the external motivation or from eternal motivation? Romans 5:17

Is life comprising of the temporal only, or is there room for the eternal? 2 Corinthians 4:18

Has HIS eternity {Which, according to Isaiah God inhabits} come into your time, and have you had a close encounter of the Third kind {3rd heavens} lately?

Is life a rut which is a grave with both ends kicked out?

Are you living in the rat race and chasing rats?

How would you tell the difference between the real world and the dream world, O Neo of the Matrix?

According to John 1:4, "In him was LIFE, and the LIFE was the light of men." {The Life is in the Light}

Verse 9 also says "That was the True Light, which lights every man that come into the world."

Meaning, all people in the earth has been lit before birth. All have been pre-wired to know God, all have been lighted with the Light, yet many are still in the dark about it {2 Corinthians 4:3}.

Inherent within humanity is a groan, and aching sound of sorts, and agonized agony, a yearning to live the way we were born to live. In the mind of God he is not out to gather the scraps of human beings left behind or huddled away in some dispensational eschatology. He is the Saviour of the world and the waster of none. He is not saving a few folks from the days of Adam unto now and later by the skin of their teeth. He is not trying to sneak us out of the earth in a secret escape evacuation plan for fear of Schofield's, Larkin's, and Darby's {1800's} notes regarding some parenthetical church. He, the Lord God who is mighty in the midst of us is not struggling to get some folk save and to score points over satan who appears in the dismal yet chaotic cardinal doctrines of many to appear winning in the soul's department...83 [satan] to 42 [God]...

What kind of a God do we serve if only a handful of saints cross over into the fulness of HIS glory, while 90% misses the mark?

In Ephesians 1:18 Paul alludes to the eye of our understanding being {enlighten} flooded with light {Greek - Photizo, as in photo}, and in this great flood {not speaking of Noah, so smile}, we come to know the hope of HIS calling {again, verse 18}, and the riches of the glory of the inheritance IN {within} the saints. All of this, through the LIGHT, by WISDOM, and the understanding of the true nature of things where God first said "let there be light... and there was..." Genesis 1:3; John 1:1-16

The tragedy of so many in their chaotic thinking today is that they act as if LIFE began at home, on the job, or in their hallowed sanctuary, sacred hall, and church facility.

Yet, LIFE began to us as LIGHT, enlightenment, or another new meaning of being born from above. There is light in the Life and Life in the Light. We were lit before birth, and in Psalms 18:28 it says, "For you will light my candle: the Lord will enlighten my darkness." Every man is a candle, waiting to be enlightened. In 2 Corinthians 4:4, the glorious gospel of light is Christ, the image of God. The same light that God commanded to shine out of darkness {2 Corinthians 4:6} now shines in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face {face to face} of Jesus Christ...

Once we are enlightened to the LIFE we LIVE - or has been made ALIVE. Once the light which was {Father glorify me with your own self, before the world was - John 17}, become the light that now is, then we live by the light of LIFE {John 8:12}. We begin to live again. The true light now shines {1 John 2:8}, for the light that shines in darkness cannot be apprehended, possessed nor seized by the darkness {John 1:5}.

Light shines in a dark world when we are living in the light of HIS life, for LIGHT belongs in the darkness. Men see our good works and glorify the Father. How? We let our light shine. Do we make it shine? No. Do we try to shine it? No. The light of LIFE is who and what we are because of WHO He is, it is the ONENess of God and Man, I and my Father are ONE. The life that we now live, we live by the Faith of the SON of God in Galatians 2:20. Life comes to light by enlightenment, and enlightenment is away of LIFE. Ephesians 1:18

Thus, immortality is brought to LIGHT by the gospel. 2 Timothy 1:10

For The Life is in the LIGHT... and God has given us the Light of LIFE...

So, {Whose} LIFE Are We Living Today?

Remember, you are not born to compete but to be creative. You are born with creativity and imagination, with a spirit of excellence and adventure. Our LIFE is not alone biological, emotional, or circumstantial. LIFE does not begin here, but there, in that Secret Place, God's abiding, the habitation of the Spirit which we are in HIM through the Christos, the twain becoming ONE, ONE-Der-FULL.

The goal is not to escape to the Holy of Holies for fear of the Outer Court and Holy Place, but the vision or joy is to BE-come that 3rd Dimension, and to minister LIFE from within the veil of NO LIMITATIONS...We minister from that realm of glory in Psalms 91:2-3, and the following verses 3-16 of Psalms 91 is simply the benefits of Living LIFE in the Secret Place...

We don't forget where we come from for the view of elitism that we have arrived. But we minister love, leadership, legacy, and lineage to the Outer Court and Holy Place, as priests of the Lord ministering in mercy and having compassion on them that are out of the way...Hebrews 5:1-2

For if you spend your time pulling down those ahead of you and pushing down those behind you - you will always have someone pulling you down and pushing you down. BUT...if you push up those ahead of you and pull up those behind you - you will always have someone pushing you up and pulling you up...

Brief Conclusion of Mrs. A & B Story continues...below

Mrs. {A}, while alone in her quiet and defining moment comes to realize and to rely upon the grace and favor of God, and bows her knees to the God of heaven. From here, a thundering voice shakes her heavens and her earth {mind and body, inner man and outer man} amongst the rolling clouds of glory. The Lord gives her a word, a proceeding word, a now word, and in an instant, it appears all of time has ceased to be, or in suspended animation, as one of the great dimensions in heaven and earth is..."I and My Father are ONE!"

Nothing quite like the power of the ONENESS of GOD AND MAN! Say it..."I and My Father are ONE!" He that has seen me has seen the Father! It is the Father that is doing the WORK in me!"

Mrs. {A} stands to her feet trembling at the audible voice of the Lord, and the divine resonation within her being, and begins to prepare for tonight's dinner with Mikey Boy and the family. Well, on that night, Mrs. {A} made a most elaborate and lasting memory of a dinner, and Mike was quite astound with all of the preparations that his lovely wife took the time to invest her labor into. No maid in sight tonight, while given the rest of the week off {Watch it now!} no one but Mrs. {A} and her man Mike.

After a delicious dinner prepared by Mrs. {A} herself, the two of them take a walk into the Tea Room of their house for a delightful cup of herb tea. Mrs. [A] embraces Mike with a gorgeous hug, and a whispering prayer of thanksgiving to God for her husband, and asked if she could share a few things with him from the heart. He pondered, then affirmed yes.

After a full 2 full hours of heart to heart one on one, the presence of the Lord became strong and mighty in the midst of them. An overwhelming feeling took over Mike, a feeling he had not experienced before, as for the first time in all of his adult years, he felt like sharing something from deep inside.

Mike broke down and cried like a baby, reflecting back to the emotional state he had been stunted in his growth since 3-4 years old. The child within him had wanted to cry out and weep for many years and had little to no sense of self expression. His emotional feelings to reach out for help was forced or constrained to stay back inside through his mom, or the lady which gave birth to him. In earlier times crying was ascribed by his mom as for weaklings or in being a sissy. Take it like a man!" his mom would say as she would humiliate him verbally, and to beat him into condemnation.

His dad longed left his mother in those days for a younger woman barely legal, and the anger of the mom was transferred to the son, little Mikey. Mom had an ill regard for men as dogs, demons, and doormats, and Micky grew up with a slight ill towards women who steal their dads from them...

Now, Mikey is spilling out what was trapped inside, as the presence of the Lord became real to him. Mike wept and asked for forgiveness on 4 levels...

1 - Forgiveness from God {Mike can now ask for, and receive 4-give-ness from God as he comes boldly to the throne of grace}

2 - Forgiveness from his wife and children {Mike confesses his faults to his wife, and his wife receives him AGAIN for the FIRST Time}, Selah

3 - Forgiving his mother and father of old {Mike forgave his mom and dad, and released them from his personal sphere and consciousness, no longer a stronghold of his mind or a lingering thought to sabotage his daily existence, but beginning a new healthy form of communicating and referencing his past without the sting of death and the fear of his present and future...Mike can live again}

4 - Forgiving himself... {Mike forgave himself, admitted the pain, the guilt which turned into condemnation, and the harsh reality that he was living a miserable life in the eyes of his overbearing mom and his deserter of a dad. Mike can now experience joy and jubilee inside...}

Mike and Lady {A}, or Alicia are declaring 4-give-ness, 70x's 7, or the Year of Jubilee, 7 Sabbaths passed, and Ah, the next day, Jubilee, every man or woman returning back to their family, their ancestral blessing, their possession, their land, their allotted portion, amen and amen...Leviticus 25...For that is what a real Jubilee is in 70x's 7, a real release in the inside out. Forgiveness is letting go, pardon, to release, and to go on with your LIFE, for Whose LIFE are we living anyway? HIS!!!

Mike and Alicia got the breakthrough of a century, and in a matter of days, a new home environment, peace like a river, new countenance, new romance {from mere procreation to recreation, to concentration, amen married couples}, the kids {adults at this point, for they gladly finished school and excelled into College or in some technical or military career {including entrepreneurship}, for obvious reasons in the past of course} can come over again without reserve, their dog Skip wags right along, and they have discovered a whole new meaning in LIFE, for NOW, they are Living HIS LIFE, abundantly.

What ever happened to Lady {B}?

She and her husband Tom were interceding at home that same hour of the evening for Mike and Alicia's restoration and jubilee. By the way, lady {B} is Beatrice...

Another important discussion for today's conclusion...

Many people live by their mere facts, but all fact is not the truth. For many, fact is , their bank accounts are anorexic, but the Spirit of TRUTH says that the bank accounts are obese, bursting over, overflowing..., especially those who honor God's kingdom economy, the way the Lord purposed us to prosper...However, the Lord can turn a truth into a fact, so that those who live by mere facts alone will see it plainly the way the Lord is revealing it, but the driving force behind the fact is what the Truth declares, and not mere facts alone.

All logic is not truth. One can be totally logical about their life, and not embrace the Truth of what the Lord has said concerning us. Logic without illumination of the Spirit of God is simply coming to logical conclusions.

But beloved, "Nevertheless I live, yet not I, but CHRIST which lives within me. And the LIFE that our live in this earth suit, I live by the FAITH {convictions} of the SON of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for you and me..." Galatians 2:20

Theresa and me are delighted to serving you this day, and would like to get a list of those of you being greatly encouraged by the weekly email editions to write back sometime and share with us how these messages and ministries have been an apostolic blessing to you. Today's email is a little different than the usual format, but then, we are not normal anyway.. {smile}.

Remember beloved to feed the seed and to nurture the nature, for by divine enlightenment, you are becoming what and who you already are. Born to be and born to do, marvelously blessed and highly FLAVORED of the Lord. You are born to have a passionate and fulfilling life, not adding years to your life but adding life to your years. You are not getting older, rather, you are maturing. Whose report will you believe? The credit report, the medical report, the school academic report, the military report, or the police report?

Neither!

We shall believe the report of the Lord, his announcements, his news, his tidings, what He is saying NOW about what He has already said...
